ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART
MOTION TO QUASH SUBPOENA

This matter is before the Court on another motion filed by non-party Michigan Unemployment Insurance Agency (UIA) to limit discovery in this case, this time to quash the plaintiffs' subpoena requesting the production of documents from and deposition of the agency's director, Steve Gray. The Court reviewed the parties' submissions and heard oral argument on February 12, 2020. At the hearing, the Court announced from the bench its decision to grant in part and deny in part the UIA's motion.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the UIA's motion to quash the plaintiffs' subpoena (ECF No. 237) is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART for the reasons stated on the record.

It is further ORDERED that the subpoena is limited to documents in Gray's actual possession, custody, and control, covering the period beginning in October, 2013 and continuing only until he became the director of the UIA.

It is further ORDERED that the deposition of Gray may not extend beyond five hours.

It is further ORDERED that the subject matter of Gray's deposition is limited to his activity relevant to the issues in this case before he became the director of the UIA.

It is further ORDERED that the plaintiffs may submit 25 written questions (including subparts) concerning Gray's activity since becoming the director of the UIA, focusing on information that has not been furnished by others.

It is further ORDERED that the plaintiffs must further limit the discovery requests in their subpoena by (1) eliminating open ended requests for information; and (2) restricting the requests to information concerning the disputes framed by the pleadings in this case.

It is further ORDERED that the motion is DENIED in all other respects.
